

Privacy Policy for Cookies on www.awinsoft.gr

Last updated: 17/3/2023

Awinsoft.gr ("we", "us", or "our") is committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring a safe browsing experience on our website. This Privacy Policy for Cookies outlines how we use cookies and similar tracking technologies on our website, www.awinsoft.gr, and explains the choices you can make about these cookies.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer or mobile device by websites you visit. These files allow our website to recognize your device and remember your preferences, improving your browsing experience. Cookies can be classified into different types based on their duration and purpose.

Types of cookies we use

2.1. Strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are essential for the proper functioning of our website. Without these cookies, our website would not be able to provide certain features, such as remembering your login details or processing your orders.

2.2. Performance cookies

These cookies help us understand how visitors interact with our website by collecting and reporting information on pages visited, time spent on the site, and other related metrics. This data helps us improve the overall performance and user experience of our website.

2.3. Functionality cookies

Functionality cookies enable our website to remember your preferences, such as language, region, or other user-specific settings. These cookies help us provide you with a more personalized experience.

2.4. Targeting and advertising cookies

These cookies track your browsing habits and help us deliver relevant advertisements to you based on your interests. They may also be used to limit the number of times you see an advertisement and measure the effectiveness of our advertising campaigns.

How to manage cookies

Most web browsers allow you to control cookies through their settings. You can adjust your browser settings to delete existing cookies, prevent them from being stored on your device, or receive notifications before new cookies are set. Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality and features of our website.

Third-party cookies

We may use third-party cookies to improve the user experience on our website, such as cookies from social media platforms, analytics providers, or advertising partners. These cookies are subject to the respective privacy policies of the third-party providers.

Awinsoft cares about your privacy. We aim to ensure that your personal data is secured by managing it in accordance with the provisions of the new EU Regulation implemented on 25th of May 2018 - "General Data Protection Regulation" or often referred to as "GDPR".

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to update this Privacy Policy at any time. Any changes will be posted on this page, and if the changes are significant, we will notify you through a more prominent notice, such as an email or a notification on our website.
